

CURRICULUM VITAE

1. Kartavtsev Kirill Sergeevich
2. Education: Graduated from the Far Eastern Federal University. Specialist in social anthropology (2015). Postgraduate student (since 2015) at the graduate school of the Institute of History, Archeology and Ethnology in Ethnography, Ethnology and Anthropology. Scientific adviser Yuriy Latushko.
3. 2015-2017 - laboratory assistant of the Center for Island and Coastal Anthropology of the IHAE FEB RAS;
Since February, 2018 - junior researcher of the Center for Island and Coastal Anthropology of the IHAE FEB RAS.
4. The sphere of scientific interests: social and cultural anthropology, conflictology, traditional culture and societies of the North Pacific.
5. Grants and projects. The project of the Russian geographical society No. 01/2015 "Landscapes and the cultural evolution of the island communities of the Russian Far East (Kuril Islands, Commander Islands, Peter the Great Bay Islands)» (Project participant).
6. Field research. 2016 - ethno sociological study of the Aleut culture, Petropavlovsk-Kamchatsky, Kamchatka; 2017 - archaeological expedition to Rikord Island, the Archipelago of Eugenia, Primorsky Krai (Rikord-4 archaeological site)
7. Selected Publications:
Kartavtsev K. Ethnic conflict in Ukraine as the conflict of civilizations // Bulletin of Orel state University, 2015, №4: 322-329.
Kartavtsev K. Mechanisms of social control among the Aleuts // Tomsk State University Journal, 2017, №422: 91–95.
Kartavtsev K., Latushko Yu. The correlation between social and ethnic identity among the Commander Aleuts // Comprehensive studies of the island societies of the Far East: a collection of materials / ed. Y.V. Latushko. - Vladivostok: IHAE FEB RAS, 2017. Vol. 1. P.65-73.

